WE FLY TO THY PROTECTION
We fly to thy protection, O holy Mother of God.
Despise not our petitions in our necessities, but deliver us always from all dangers O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL
St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

October - The Month of Holy Rosary

Twenty-Seventh Sun. in Ordinary

Isaiah begins the parable-telling today, establishing the vineyard as the setting we will revisit throughout the readings. From the first reading through the psalm and on to the Gospel, we are afforded the chance to consider the wonderful vineyard that God created for us and what has befallen it over the course of centuries. May God's word inspire us to bear good fruit in the vineyard that is our world.

Isaías comienza hoy el relato de la parábola, estableciendo la viña como el entorno que revisaremos a lo largo de las lecturas. De la primera lectura a través del salmo y hasta el Evangelio, se nos brinda la oportunidad de considerar la maravillosa viña que Dios creó para nosotros y lo que le ha sucedido a lo largo de los siglos. Que la palabra de Dios nos inspire para dar buenos frutos en la viña que es nuestro mundo.

What are Gregorian Masses?

Gregorian Masses are a series of Holy Masses traditionally offered on 30 consecutive days.

They are offered for one individual soul.

The custom of offering Gregorian Masses for a particular soul recognizes that few people are immediately ready for heaven after death, and that, through the infinite intercessory power of Christ's sacrifice, made present in Holy Mass, a soul can be continually perfected in grace and enabled to enter finally into the union with the Most Holy Trinity – our God, Who is Love Itself.

History of Gregorian Masses

Gregorian Masses take their name from Saint Gregory the Great, who was sovereign Pontiff from 590 to 604. St. Gregory the Great contributed to the spread of the pious practice of having these Masses celebrated for the deliverance of the souls from purgatory. In his Dialogues, he tells us that he had Masses on thirty consecutive days offered for the repose of the soul of Justus, a monk who had died in the convent of St. Andrew in Rome. At the end of the thirtieth Mass, the deceased appeared to one of his fellow monks and announced that he had been delivered from the flames of Purgatory.

In the month of November the Gregorian Mass will be celebrated for 30 days for our deceased.
