Twenty-third Sunday Ordinary Time

Today we hear the story of a miracle in which Jesus performs a healing in a very intimate way. He draws a deaf and mute man away from the crowd, puts his fingers in his ears and, having spat on them, touches his tongue as well. Jesus is here with us in an intimate way as well. He has been just as close to us since we were baptized, when the priest or deacon touched our ears and mouth as well. He is with us as we gather in his name, in his very Body and Blood in the Eucharist we consume, and in each other. Listening to the readings today, let us realize that the One who healed in such a way is intimately close with us too, wherever we are.

Hoy escuchamos la historia de un milagro en el que Jesús realiza una curación de una manera muy íntima. Aparta a un hombre sordomudo de la multitud, le pone los dedos en los oídos y, después de escupirlos, le toca también la lengua. Jesús está aquí con nosotros de una manera íntima también. Ha estado tan cerca de nosotros desde que fuimos bautizados, cuando el sacerdote o el diácono nos tocó también los oídos y la boca. Está con nosotros cuando nos reunimos en su nombre, en su propio Cuerpo y Sangre en la Eucaristía que consumimos, y en los demás. Al escuchar las lecturas de hoy, nos damos cuenta de que Aquel que curó de esa manera está íntimamente cerca de nosotros también, dondequiera que estemos.
